

A23

"Ol' Rivets" gussied up for Bicentennial.

Called "Ol' Rivets" because she was the first GG1 built by the Pennsylvania RR, and the only one with riveted seams. Designer Raymond Loewy called for smooth welded seams in the subsequent 139 copies. This view is from 1976. She now resides, wearing dignified vintage paint, in a proper museum.

© WWW.RAILCARDS.COM, P.O. Box 3081, Alameda, Ca. 94501

P O S T C A R D